

After Easter Sunday Jesus' friends went back home. One night, they went fishing on Lake Galilee, but they didn't catch anything.

It was just getting light when someone called from the beach:
"Have you caught any fish?"
"No, not one," they said.

"Let down your net on the other side of the boat," said the man on the beach. And they caught so many fish, the net almost broke!

"It's Jesus," John whispered to Peter.

Jesus had lit a fire, all ready for a picnic breakfast. He had fish and bread, and they brought more fish from the boat. His friends came and joined him. They were hungry!
