

A film by Steve Boot

This week we are going to be using a short film for our English lessons, both reading and writing.

This week, we will be focusing on prediction.

Remind Yourself!

Listen to the soundtrack to the film again. Remind yourself what you predicted yesterday.

Watch the trailer to the film...

Task 1: Tell Me Grid

In the top triangle of each section, make a prediction about the film. Use the headings 'People', 'Places', 'Story' and 'Time'.

Leave the bottom triangles blank for now. We will look at these later in the week.

You can download a printable worksheet or simply draw it out in your home learning books.

Look at the next slide for an example and sentence starters.

People

I predict that the main characters will be..
I think this because...
There might also be...

Places

I predict that the film is set... because...
I think it might also be set...

I think that the story will be about...
I think this because...

I predict that the problem they face might be...

Story

I think that the time is around ..... because...

Time

Task 2:

Look at your drawing from yesterday. In a different colour, can you add anything to it having seen the trailer?

You might even want to change your drawing or do a new one, depending on your prediction from yesterday.
