

In the piece of writing you have just done you have used adjectives to describe what was happening in the film.

But imagine if the book wasn't a book of butterflies ...

Listen to the story 'Monkey Puzzle' by Julia Donaldson.

In the book the character of the monkey uses lots of great words to describe why the animals are not his mum.

Your Written Work Activity

If you could choose an alternative to a book of butterflies what would it be?

What adjectives would you use to describe your chosen creature?

What words would you use to describe how they moved?

Create your own word bank and front cover. You could use the template idea below. (But obviously draw it bigger!)
